

The Queenslander Pictorial.

THE IRON HORSE ON THE BULLOO.

Completion of the Gulphil Railway, which was opened on Tuesday

A. J. Walker, photo.

Crossing the Bulloo.

Low level bridge over the Bulloo at Gulphil.

Driving the last log.

Final train crossing the Bulloo.

The first train at Gulphil.

Township of Gulphil - wood coming in.

THE QUEENSLANDER
FOR SALE 6, MELBOURNE 12

THE QUEENSLANDER
FOR SALE 6, MELBOURNE 12

Reinforce mold.

ANZAC DAY

The Soluting Base in Albert Square.

Returned Soldiers (Chaplains Harrington and Plans leading the line.)

PARADE IN BRISBANE.

© 1917, THE MAIL

Returned Soldiers

Naval Cadets

Governor General

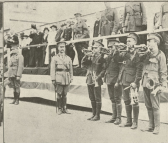

The Governor General decorates Private Dillon

Private Dillon with his medal

Artillery

The Last Post

The Lady Gardener in England.

See Our London Letter, Women's Department.

Interior of conservatory at Lady Wolstonley's school for lady gardeners, Glyde, Sussex, England.

Miss Mace, F.R.S., Teacher.

Types of Students.

Students after a morning's work.

The Exchange officially opening the Show

Part of the Parade

A competition for the Government's special prize (the Exchange is the winner)

Champion blood horse, Price 1825

Champion horse, Price 1825

Champion blood stallion, Price 1825

Champion Flanders bull, Price 1825

Champion Holstein bull, Price 1825

Champion Shorthorn bull, Price 1825

Champion Jersey bull, Price 1825

Champion Shorthorn bull, Price 1825

Champion fat bullocks, Price 1825

RECRUITING AT TOOWOOMBA SHOW.

The best recruits in the Empire will be seen at the show ground.

FINE FURNITURE AT TOOWOOMBA SHOW.

Shows the most complete collection of furniture, including the latest styles in the Empire.